In the Labour Court for the State of Himachal Pradesh
(Presiding Officer Shri H. D. Kainthla, Registrar High Court Simla)

CASE No. 9 OF 1979

Ganga Ram

....Applicant

Versus

Secretary, Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board
Simla and others .. Respondents.

Application under Section 33-C(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act.

ORDER

This application under Section 33-C(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act (hereinafter referred to as the I.D. Act) has been filed by Shri Ganga Ram. He was working as Maintenance Superintendent in the electricity department of the Municipal Corporation, Simla. But later on his services came to be transferred to the Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board as such. He retired from service on 31-5-1977.

In this application (Amended dated 16-10-79) the claim laid is for:

- pay fixation in the context of the letter marked Annexure 'A' to the application;
- finalisation of complete pension case;
- regularisation of 9 years service consequent upon absorption from Municipal Corporation to the Electricity Board; and
- realisation of gratuity.

The applicant admits that he is residing in the Board's accommodation in Chhota Simla and as soon as his genuine grievances are remedied, he will leave Simla and vacate the accommodation.

According to the applicant his dues payable by the H.P.S.E. Board might be to the tune of Rs. 7,000.

The applicant has also claimed conveyance allowance at the rate of Rs. 15 (rupees fifteen) per month after November, 1976 which is alleged to have been arbitrarily stopped by the respondent No. 2.

The precise monetary claim made out by the claimant in the prayer clause of the application is as under:—

- Arrear of pay on refixation of Pay in the terms of Annexure 'A' from 13-5-1971 to 31-5-1977. Rs. 840.00
- Release of DCR gratuity on the basis of approved service including 9 years service on work-charged basis. Rs. 3,542.50
- Conveyance Allowance at the rate of 15 p.m. from 1-12-1976 to 31-5-1977. Rs. 90.00
- Difference of Final Settlement of Pension to be worked out on the basis of approved service including 9 years service on work charge basis) and the Provisional Pension being paid. To be worked out.

The respondents Nos. 1 and 2 have opposed the claim of the applicant on preliminary legal grounds as well as on merits.

It is contended by the respondents Nos. 1 and 2 that the application is untenable, for the relief prayed being not entertainable within the ambit of Section 33-C(2) of the I.D. Act. It is also contended that the applicant is not a workman and, therefore, the claim deserves to be dismissed.

On merits the following things are pleaded:

That the applicant, despite best efforts on the part of the respondents, has deliberately failed in securing "No Demand Certificate". So, for want of completion of this, necessary audit formality, the pension and gratuity due to the applicant could not be finalised for payment to him. That he has failed to vacate the residential accommodation after his retirement which had been allotted to him. That the applicant is in unauthorised occupation of the government accommodation. That immediately on vacation of the said premises, and settlement of any other outstanding claim against him, the "No Demand Certificate" would be issued entitling him the release of pensionary benefits. However, provisional pension has been sanctioned to the applicant.

In regard to the work charge service of the applicant, the respondents state that the matter is being processed according to the instructions/clarifications in the matter issued by the Board. The pay of the applicant, according to the respondents, stands already fixed per rules existing in the Board and settled.

On the respective contentions of the parties, the following two preliminary issues have been raised:—

- Whether the applicant's claim petition is covered by Section 33-C(2) of I.D. Act ? OPP.
- Whether the applicant is not a workman? OPR.

FINDINGS ON ISSUES

ISSUE No. 1

As has been seen above, the claim of the applicant is of a complex character covering four different items. Repeating, the same are as under:—

- Pay fixation in the context of Annexure 'A'.
- Finalisation of complete pension case.
- Regularisation of 9 years service consequent upon absorption from M.C. Simla to the H.P.S.E. Board in the light of Annexure IBI.
- Releasing of gratuity.

It is obvious from the above that there is no item clearly covered by computation of the monetary claim on the existing rights and settled basis available to the applicant.

Item No. (ii) and (iv) are clearly out of the per view of this Court relating to the death-cum-retirement gratuity and pension claim. A.I.R. 1979 S.C. 1981 titled State of Punjab vs. Labour Court Jullundur and others is an authority on this point.

The other two claims, (i) arrears of pay on re-fixation in terms Annexure 'A' and (iii) conveyance allowance at the rate of Rs. 15 per month, are denied and disputed by the respondents, the former having been settled and the latter not admissible. The applicant has failed to plead the basis for claiming the conveyance allowance. For pay fixation according to Annexure 'A' the respondents contend that they have fixed the pay accordingly. In such a situation all the matters agitated by the applicant are not entertainable under Section 33-C(2) of the I.D. Act, but would be the subject matter of a regular reference before the Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court. The summary remedy in the nature of execution provided by Section 33-C(2) I.D. Act, cannot be invoked by the applicant. The authorities on the point are A.I.R. 1974 S.C. 1604 C.L.W.T. Corporation vs. Workmen, and 1978 LLJ 154 Swastik Manufacturer vs. Labour Court (A.P. High Court). So this issue goes against the applicant.

ISSUE No. 2

On the respondent's side Shri S.K. Sharma (RW. 1) Assistant Engineer, H.P.S.E. Board, Division Simla, has stated that the applicant, as Maintenance Superintendent in City Electricity Division Simla, had to supervise the work of the Linemen, Tee-mates, Assistant Linemen and daily wage workers. That he was to get work done from them according to the instructions of the higher officers.

There is no evidence on the applicant's on this issue. Not only the designation of the applicant's post, "Maintenance Superintendent" is indicative of supervisory character of the post, but the statement of RW. 1, Shri S.K. Sharma, confirms this position on factual basis that he had to supervise workers like Lincemen, Assistant Linemen, T. Mates and daily wage workers. The applicant admittedly was getting monthly emoluments of over Rs. 500 vide statement dated 10-12-1979, recorded before the framing of issues. Therefore, he is not a workman as defined under Section 2(s) (iv) of the I.D. Act.

In view of this factual and legal position, the applicant has not remedy available under Section 33-C(2) of the I.D. Act. This issue also goes against the applicant.

For the above findings on the issues the application stands rejected but no orders as to costs. Announced to the parties present.
